

HANDS: An exhibition at Cotuit Center for the Arts September 20 - November 2

Cotuit Center for the Arts announces a special art exhibition to be mounted in conjunction with the Cape Cod premiere of the documentary film See What I'm Saying: The Deaf Entertainer's Documentary.

The art exhibit will be the first in the newly dubbed "Art Above the Sails" gallery on the second level of the Theater & Gallery.

The theme of this exhibit is HANDS. As the primary method of deaf communication is through signing and the use of hands, this exhibit will be a powerful compliment to the screening. Even more significant is the launch of an ongoing series of workshops and programs specifically designed for the deaf and hearing impaired. Our Center will serve as an enriching visual cultural setting.

For more information about the film, please visit www.seewhatimsayingmovie.com

RULES:

- All works must be for sale at fair market value
- All mediums accepted
- All work must remain in show for its entirety
- Living Artists Only

COMMISSION:

Cotuit Center for the Arts charges a commission of 40%

CALENDAR:

September 10:	Deadline for entry submission
September 17:	Delivery to CCftA
September 24:	Opening Reception: 5:00 - 7:00pm
November 3:	Art to be picked up

Gallery Hours: 10:00am - 4:00pm Tuesday - Sunday

SUBMISSION:

High resolution jpegs may be sent to: david@cotuitcenterforthearts.org CDs may also be submitted and can be returned if sent with a SASE.

Entries will only be considered after the artist information and release form is received. Please print and return the completed form to:

Cotuit Center for the Arts
PO Box 2042
Cotuit, MA 02635

Artist Name_____

Address_____

Phone_____ email_____

CCftA ID	TITLE	Size	Media	A/R CCftA	Use

Total Entries_____